Mr. Klug's Corner

Each year we take time to recognize National Lutheran Schools Week with our sister schools in the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod. It gives us the opportunity to celebrate the gift and impact of Lutheran education. Our Lutheran schools are more than places of academic learning, they are communities where faith and learning are woven together each day. Students are nurtured academically, spiritually, and socially, grounded in God's Word while being equipped with the skills they need to serve others in the world around them.

For our families, Lutheran schools are partners in raising children in the Christian faith. Together, home, church, and school, work hand in hand to point students to Christ, reminding them that their identity and worth are found in Him. These shared values create a safe, caring environment where students are known, supported, and encouraged to grow.

Our theme this year, "Whatever," comes from Colossians 3:17: "And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." This verse reminds us that every lesson, activity, conversation, and act of service is an opportunity to live out our faith. As we celebrate National Lutheran Schools Week, we give thanks for the blessing of Lutheran education and the opportunity to serve Christ in Whatever we do together as a school family.

Enjoy the day off tomorrow and stay warm!
