Mr. Klug's Corner

Honoring our Veterans- In 1919, President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed November 11th as the first commemoration of Armistice Day—the anniversary of the signing of the Armistice that ended World War I. Major hostilities formally ceased at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month in 1918 with the signing of the agreement by Germany.

This week, we observe Veterans Day, a day to honor and thank all living veterans for their service, courage, and dedication. It reminds us that all who have served, both those who gave their lives and those who returned home, have sacrificed to protect our freedoms and ensure our nation's safety.

God bless our veterans and military personnel. We are deeply grateful for their service and thank God for all they have done for our nation.

Week 11 Parenting Tip: How to Honor Our Veterans- Veterans Day is a wonderful opportunity to teach our children about gratitude, service, and sacrifice. Take a few moments as a family to talk about the men and women who have served our country and the freedoms we enjoy because of their dedication. Encourage your child to thank a veteran, write a note of appreciation, or say a prayer for those who have served and continue to serve. These small acts help children develop respect, compassion, and a grateful heart for the blessings God has given us.

LHS Fall Drama
Sheboygan Lutheran High School's Drama Department presents their Fall Drama, 'The Orphan Train', Friday and Saturday nights, Nov. 13 & 14 @ 7:00 p.m. The performers are our high school One-Act competitors along with several SALSA students in the full version of the play, which runs about 1 hour. The play tells the story of nine orphans on an "orphan train" that left New York City on May 28, 1914. The train travels to Midwestern towns in search of homes for the orphaned and unwanted children. The character's stories unfold, each a memorable surprise. The Orphan Train is a charming heart-warmer from the legendary children's playwright, Aurand Harris.
