Mr. Klug's Corner

Yesterday during our Lenten chapel service, our Bethlehem Lutheran School students had the special blessing of witnessing the baptism of one of our own, 3rd grader, Lucas. The service, led by Pastor Hanson, gave our entire school family a beautiful opportunity to see God's promises in action. As water and the Word were joined together, Lucas was welcomed into God's family, reminded that through baptism we are washed clean of sin and claimed as God's beloved children. Moments like these are powerful for our students because they allow them to see their faith lived out in real and meaningful ways. Rather than simply learning about baptism in the classroom, they were able to witness it firsthand alongside their classmates, teachers, and members of our congregation. During this Lenten season, a time when we reflect on Christ's sacrifice and the gift of salvation, it was especially meaningful to celebrate the new life Lucas has in Christ. We thank God for Lucas and for the blessing it was for our school community to share in such a joyful and faith-filled moment together.
