Mr. Klug's Corner

As the signs of spring begin to appear around us, the warmer sunshine, budding trees, and longer days, we are reminded of the incredible promise we celebrate at Easter: our Savior lives. The empty tomb is the foundation of our faith and the source of our daily hope. Just as new life pushes through the soil after a long winter, the resurrection of Jesus assures us that life, joy, and forgiveness are ours through Him. Our students are blessed to be reminded each day that the risen Savior walks with them in every classroom, on the playground, and in their homes. As Pastor Osladil shared, Matthew 28:6 proclaims this beautiful truth, "He is not here; He has risen, just as He said." As we move into this spring season, may that message fill our hearts with renewed energy and confidence. We give thanks for the gift of salvation and for the opportunity we have at Bethlehem to share the Good News of Jesus with our children and families. May the hope of the risen Savior continue to bloom in our school community just like the new life we see all around us. I will be out of the office next Monday-Wednesday as part of the NLSA visiting working on the accreditation of St. John's Lutheran School in Plymouth.
