Easter Break

Reminder that there is no school Friday, April 15 and Monday, April 18 for Easter Break. See you all on Tuesday!

Have You Heard?

Pam-Carlson-Gugel has been selected as a 2022 Herb Kohl Educational Foundation Teacher Fellowship recipient. The announcement stated that Pam “was chosen from among many fine candidates because of your skill as a leader and agent for positive change, and your superior ability to inspire love of learning...The Herb Kohl Educational Foundation and program co-sponsor, Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction, Wisconsin Cooperative Educational Service Agencies, and Wisconsin Newspaper Association Foundation, are delighted to recognize your outstanding accomplishments.”

Pam, we are all so very happy for you, on this well-deserved award. Thank you for your continued love and commitment to Bethlehem Lutheran School!

Call Extended

Mrs. Rachel Schnegelberger has been extended a Call to be Bethlehem’s next 5K teacher. Mrs. Schnegelberger is currently teacher 3rd grade at Zion Lutheran School in Dallas Texas. She has over 21 years of teaching experience in both kindergarten and 3rd grade. Mrs. Schnegelberger has a husband and three children. Please pray for her and her family as she considers our call. Please continue to also pray for our school as we wait to see who God will place here as our next teacher.

Context is Important

From the entire Bible, why were this week's Scripture readings selected to be read at worship services? Sometimes we need to hear what came before or what comes after. On Saturdays, from 4:15 – 5:15 pm in the Century Room, one of our pastors will provide the full story. Why not make it a point to attend?

Pastor Niles Welcomes Your Questions

For the next several weeks, Pastor Niles will answer your questions during Bible class in the Century Room, from 9:15 – 10:15 am, Sunday mornings. No subject is off-limits. Email your question to patrick.niles@ourbethlehem.com or ask it in person during class. This is a not-to-be-missed opportunity. What's on your mind?

Pastor Moon Sheds Light on the Writing of St. Augustine

Augustine was a deep thinker and he wrote significantly about spiritual matters. On Sunday, April 10th, Pastor Moon will delve into the two main divisions of the 22 books of the City of God writing. What do these long-ago writings have to say to us today? To find out, be in the library from 9:15 – 10:15 am.

Bethlehem Needs to Hear from You "Techies" Out There

In order to keep our Online Bible Class Ministry alive, we need facilitators. For those of you who are comfortable "living online", doing this would not be a big deal. There are many ready-to-go studies just waiting to be used. Let's talk it over. Contact Audrey Braatz at 920-452-7706 or email dobraatz@yahoo.com

Vivacious Speaker to Visit Bethlehem

Tim Unsinn, of the Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch will give a special presentation in the Century Room on Tuesday, May 3rd at 7:00 pm. He will share with us how working with animals, a good dose of fresh air and a loving Christian environment helps high-risk boys and girls get their lives back "on track". Although hosted by the Bethlehem LWML, both men and women are invited. How about putting this event on your calendar?

LHS Musical

The Sheboygan Lutheran High School Drama Department is proud to present their Spring Musical, "A Tale of Two Cities: The Musical."

Performances are 7 pm Friday, April 29; 7 pm Saturday, April 30; and 2 pm Sunday, May 1 in the Sheboygan Lutheran High School Worship & Fine Arts Center.

Charles Dickens' classic novel comes to life in this epic musical adaption, set against the gritty backdrop of the French Revolution. Young Lucie Manette finds herself caught in an unlikely love triangle with two remarkably different men: Charles Darnay, a French aristocrat; and Sydney Carton, a drunken English cynic.

As fate would have it, Darnay becomes the target of vengeance-obsessed Therese Defarge. Carton must confront the most difficult choice of his life: Watch his rival die an unjust death or pay the ultimate sacrifice for love. "A Tale of Two Cities: The Musical" reminds us that no man is beyond redemption.
