FROM THE DESK OF PASTOR NILES

Spiritual Habits

“Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who promised is faithful. And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.” (Hebrews 10:23-25)

Over the course of the last year, we have had many challenges. As I think about it, the previous sentence could be said about any year. While every year brings its challenges, the pandemic brought unique challenges that many had not faced. In the midst of those challenges, there were still blessings. We were able to put practices in place to make sure the people of God could still hear his Word and receive the Sacrament. We began to stream our services online.

This was (and is) a wonderful blessing that allowed members who were not able to join us for various reasons. The blessings of our streaming capabilities go beyond pandemic times. It continues to be a way for our shut-ins to supplement the pastoral visits they receive, and it allows them to feel connected to the body of Christ. It also allows for people to tune-in if they are out-of-town or unable to make it for any reason. Being able to stream our services has been a wonderful blessing, but it was always meant to be a supplement... not a habit.

Worship is not about our comfort. It is about God serving us with His blessings of Word and Sacrament. It is about the body of Christ coming together as His people to receive forgiveness and strength for their lives. Worship provides time for Christians to be encouraged and built up by God's Word and Sacrament together. The writer of the book of Hebrews speaks of holding fast to our confession and hope, stirring up one another to love and do good works, and encouraging one another. He also urges them to not neglect meeting together, because all of these things happen within the physical gathering of the church. When we gather together, we build up others and we are built up also. Let's get back into the habit of going to worship. Let's get back into the habit of gathering in-person as the body of Christ.

In Christ,
Pastor Niles

From the Desk of Pastor Moon

I want to share with you an experience I had a few weeks ago. A son of this congregation by the name of Aaron Reseburg was ordained and installed at Elm Grove Lutheran Church. The church is located in the west suburbs of Milwaukee, so Aaron isn't too far from home. Congrats to him on his accomplishments and thanks be to God for His faithfulness.

I had my alarm clock set for 5:45am like I typically do for Sundays so I could get an early start on my day. I would normally spend a few minutes reading the sporting news from the night before. Next I would make a pot of coffee and listen to music while I drink my first cup. Once 6:30am rolls around I get ready for church services and out the door by 7.

But this was no ordinary day. This was ordination day for a brother in ministry. I woke up at 4:30 ready to go. I haven't had this type of morning since my wedding day and before that Christmas morning as an elementary school child. It was truly a special occasion.

Over the course of the last year, it was so easy to get tunnel vision. I had so many things to think about with the ministry here at Bethlehem, it was easy to lose sight of the bigger picture. God's people are so much bigger than our little community we call Bethlehem Sheboygan. The saints in Elm Grove share the same Jesus and the ministry that stems from Him. The saints here in Sheboygan who attend other churches share that same Jesus. They share the same bread and same wine that miraculously contains body and blood of the Savior for the forgiveness of sins.

As I was dwelling on this reality, it hit me... Why am I not this excited every Sunday? As I go through the communion liturgy which says "with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven we laud and magnify Your glorious name" why does the tunnel vision still exist? We are confessing a beautiful truth every time we say that and yet I am still so laser focused on Bethlehem and sometimes even more laser focused on myself.

Sinful nature is tempting that way. The goal of the church is so large in its scale, but it can be so easy to limit how we think. Paul said it well "The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread." 1 Corinthians 10:16-17.

Our faith may seem like an individual thing. Our ministry may seem like an individual thing. They are far from individual. Our faith is communal. Our sharing in the ministry is collective.

I guess my encouragement to you today is to always remember our brothers and sisters in Christ who are in places both near and far. Pray for Aaron. Pray for all the pastors being ordained and installed. Pray for our community here at Bethlehem. Pray for the greater Christian Church. We do believe in the communion of saints! Let's never forget or neglect this beautiful spiritual reality and gift.

Peace of the Lord,
Pastor Moon

Communion Schedule Change Starting July 4th

After discussion and study, the Board of Elders in consultation with the pastors, have approved a change to our communion schedule at Bethlehem. In an effort to make the Lord's Supper available and accessible for the most amount of members each weekend, we will be celebrating the Lord's Supper at ALL of our regular services each week (Saturday @ 5:30pm, Sundays @ 8:00am and 10:30am, Wednesday @ 6:00pm). This will simplify our communion schedule and will best serve the body of Christ with the nourishment of His good gifts. At this time, we will be returning to receiving communion at the chancel rail as we did before COVID. We will also begin offering the common cup once again during communion in addition to the individual cups.

Pastor-Led Bible Classes Can Be Real "Eye-Openers"

Here are the summertime offerings; take your pick!

Saturday: "Scripture Search" continues from 4:15—5:15pm in the Century Room. This study provides an explanation of upcoming scripture readings by one of the pastors.

Sunday: Pastor Niles continues a study of the Book of Revelation. This study is held in the Sanctuary from 9:15--10:15am.

Sunday: Return to "A Lutheran Deep Dive", which is an in-depth follow-up to "What Lutherans Believe". This study is led by Pastor Moon and is held in the Century Room from 9:15—10:15am. A different topic will be discussed each week.

Do you know someone in the hospital or nursing home?

As institutions and our society begin to open up after COVID, we are trying to update our shut-in list so our pastors can provide comfort, support and the Lord's Supper to those who are not physically able to come to worship services. If you know of someone that is shut-in at home, please let the church office know so that we can update our list and make sure that we are caring for all of the body of Christ. This also pertains to those who might be entering the hospital. If you or someone you know is going into the hospital, please let the pastors and/or the church office know. Thank you for your assistance in these efforts!

Bethlehem Silent Book Club

Have you picked out a few books to read this summer? We'd love to suggest reading a book from Bethlehem's Silent Book Club where there is a variety of topics to accommodate everyone. To participate, check out one of the books marked with the Silent Book Club sticker from the shelves near the elevator in the Century Room. Read the book and leave your thoughts, questions or doodles in the margins. There will be no regularly scheduled meetings to fit busy summer schedules. If you have any questions, reach out to Martha Becker at martha.becker.96@gmail.com

Alaska Mission Trip

The senior youth has returned from a successful trip to Nenana, Alaska! While there, the youth and adults worked on service projects within the village. This included painting, cleaning and yard work at the local church. Another group also worked on resurfacing a roof for a local homeowner. In addition to the service projects, the other part of the team organized and led a Vacation Bible School. The children had a great week! Many even said they hope to see us again next summer.

Along the way, we met and had conversations with so many people. These conversations led to asking questions, trust and relationships. We give thanks to God for his protection and guidance. The memories and relationships made are a gift from Him!

THANK YOU, Bethlehem, for all of your prayers and support. You helped to make this trip possible and we are so thankful! The mission team looks forward to sharing more stories and pictures with you.
